UGLY CHARGE BY AN INSANE MAN

GLOBE RAILROAD FOREMAN IS ACCUSED OF STRAPPING CRAZY MAN AND THEN TAKING AWAY HIS MONEY.

PHOENIX, Ariz., October 12.—A Mexican named Salvas this morning called upon Marshal Moore to learn if anything could not be done to collect $50 that is coming to his son, Angel Salvas, from some railroad company at Globe. Young Salvas is confined in the asylum for the insane.

Several months ago the elder Salvas, who was then in Mexico, received a letter from Jesus Galvis, foreman of railroad camp No. 1 at Globe, saying that his son had gone crazy and that he had better come and look after his interests. It was stated that the young man lost his reason May 8, and was committed to the asylum. At the time when he went crazy $80 was taken from his person and he had $100 more coming to him at headquarters. As soon as the elder Salvas received this letter he came to Phoenix and visited his son at the asylum. He found the boy apparently as sound in mind as he had ever been.

But the alleged crazy man made some strange allegations against the foreman, Galvis. He stated that the boss had him strapped and himself took the $80 away from him, afterwards causing him to be detained in the asylum.

Old man Salvas did not know exactly how to go about recovering the $180, and some countrymen directed him to Marshal Moore. The marshal, of course, could do nothing, and called in Attorney W. P. Richardson.

The old fellow says he still has the letter written to him by Galvis and the head should show what railroad company his son worked for. The asylum patient did not know what the company's name was. Like many others of his kind, he only knew that he had a good job and received his pay regularly. He bothered himself not at all with the whys and wherefores of the work he was doing, beyond the fact that he was helping to build a railroad grade.

Attorney Richardson will look into the matter and see what can be done.

DUEY AND GIBBS AGAIN ARRESTED

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING THE FUNDS OF A MINING COMPANY OF WHICH THEY WERE OFFICERS—ARE IN JAIL.

BISBEE, Ariz., October 12.—Harry Duey and James A. Gibbs, both stockholders in the defunct brokerage firm of Duey & Overlock, of which they had the active management, were again arrested Friday evening on charges of embezzlement of funds belonging to mining companies of which they were officers. Their bonds have been fixed, but up to the present time they have been unable to furnish them.

The complaint against Duey was sworn to by L. C. Shattuck and it charges that the defendant, while treasurer of the Coehise Development company, appropriated to his own use with-out authority the sum of $3,252.50. The defendant was placed under arrest and arraigned in the justice court, where he waived reading of the complaint and asked for admittance to bail. The bond was fixed in the sum of $6,000, which, up to the present time, he has not furnished and is under guard. Unless he does so tomorrow he will be placed in jail.

Gibbs is charged with the embezzlement of $7,329.27, money belonging to the Anderson Apache Mining company, of which he is treasurer. His bond was fixed in the sum of $8,000, and he is now in Douglas in the custody of Deputy Sheriff White endeavoring to arrange the bond.

The feeling among the local creditors of the defunct firm has become very bitter, many being very much disappointed in the stand taken by L. J. Overlock, from whom a settlement of at least part of the firm's indebtedness was expected.
